OBSTETRICS AND GYNAECOLOGY

Eminent experts and practitioners will cover the many aspects surrounding the topics of obstetrics and gynaecology; and they will update you on the most recent developments in clinical negligence law.

Objectives:
• To provide an overview of key medical and legal issues in clinical negligence
• To provide an opportunity to listen to medical experts and learn more about obstetrics and gynaecology.
• To give the chance to meet and network with relevant clinical negligence practitioners of varying experiences.

• Gynaecology - an overview
• Common gynaecological conditions and treatments
• Gynaecological cancers
• Gynaecological investigations, procedures and pitfalls
• Obstetrics - an overview
• The story of women's birth and labour - the spectrum of normality to complex births

• Legal update
• Pregnancy complicated by disease
• Maternal injuries associated with vaginal delivery and caesarean section
• Paediatric neuroradiology
• Cerebral palsy
• Cerebral palsy - the legal perspective
• Clinical developments and the future?

Conference pack - electronic option!

As an alternative option to the conference ringbinder, we are delighted to offer a digital publication to our delegates, which can be viewed on mobile devices such as iPads or laptops. If delegates choose to go ahead with the digital option only, they will not receive a hard copy of the conference pack. Anybody choosing the ‘Digital only’ option will receive a discount of £10 + VAT on their conference registration.

All delegates will be sent download instructions prior to the event and will receive the iBook (for iPad) or PDF (other devices) in advance of the conference.

Thanks to our sponsors

Terms and conditions

By registering for this event, you are confirming that you have accepted APIL’s terms and conditions:

1. Delegate places are restricted to APIL members (including associates) and other legal practitioners who are eligible for APIL membership and/or considering joining the association. Residential conferences are supported by an exhibition of products and services; advertisers are therefore invited to exhibit or sponsor the event.
2. Documentation is distributed on the day of the event.
3. APIL reserves the right to charge a supplementary fee for certain dietary requirements, if there is an additional charge for this by the venue or if this has to be sourced externally.
4. APIL reserves the right to vary or cancel an event where the occasion necessitates.
5. If APIL decides to cancel an event, delegates will be invited to transfer to an equivalent priced event, free of charge, or alternatively, they will be offered a full refund.
6. APIL accepts no liability for any costs incurred to the delegate, should the event not take place.
7. If an event is forced to be cancelled due to an act of God, natural disaster, adverse weather conditions or any other reason beyond APIL’s control, the delegate has no right to a refund or transfer and APIL has no obligation to arrange a substitute event.
8. Bookings will only be confirmed when full payment is received. It is not APIL’s policy to issue invoices in advance of payment.

Cancellations and refunds for delegate fees:

9. We regret that part refunds will not be issued to delegates who only wish to attend part of the conference.
10. Cancellations will be accepted, provided that APIL is given at least 20 working days’ notice.
11. All cancellation requests against delegate fees must be made in writing and will be subject to an administration fee of £50 + VAT.

Cancellations and refunds for optional extras:

12. Refunds may be issued for any optional extras (e.g. evening dinner and accommodation on the night prior to the conference), provided that APIL is notified at least 20 working days prior to the event.
13. Any refunds for optional extras will be subject to an administration fee of £25 + VAT per person.
14. All cancellation requests must be received in writing.

Delegate transfers:

15. The residential package applies to one delegate only and cannot be split between more than one person.
16. Transfers can be made to another colleague at any time, subject to an administration fee of £50 + VAT.
17. Non-APIL members will be accepted as substitute delegates provided that the balance of the non-member fee is paid, in addition to the administration fee of £50 + VAT.
18. All delegate transfer requests must be received in writing.
