

Clinical negligence - the basics

law and procedure for investigating clinical negligence claims

London
Manchester

4 December 2019
6 December 2019

This course aims to give an all-round introduction to clinical negligence and explain, based on relevant law and procedure, how such claims should be investigated including:

- What is clinical negligence?
- Managing expectations
- Establishing liability
- Proving quantum
- Investigating the claim
- Using the protocol to make the claim
- The basics of litigating a clinical negligence claim

“Great starting point for careers in clinical negligence. It was full of useful information providing understanding and knowledge. I took a lot of useful information which filled the gaps in the knowledge that I already have. Thanks John for a great day!”
