

Late acceptance of Part 36 offers

Monday, 23 September
12:00 - 13:00

This webinar will analyse the potential costs, and other, consequences on late acceptance of Part 36 offers including:

- A reminder of the rules that apply on late acceptance of Part 36 offers
- What are the usual costs consequences?
- When might usual cost consequences be unjust?
- Is there any entitlement to indemnity costs?
- What happens in fixed costs cases on later acceptance?
- What about interest?
- What about the consequences on late acceptance of non-Part 36 offers?
- A roundup of practical and tactical issues with a look at the very latest cases on this important topic

John McQuater qualified as a solicitor in 1983 and is a partner at Atherton Godfrey, Doncaster, where he is head of litigation with overall responsibility for the personal injury, clinical negligence, employment and dispute resolution teams.

He is a member of the Law Society Clinical Negligence Accreditation Scheme and of the Law Society Personal Injury Accreditation Scheme and also an assessor for that scheme. He is a member of the APIL Clinical Negligence Specialist Accreditation Scheme and an assessor for that scheme.

He is a member of the Association of Personal Injury Lawyers, with accredited status as a senior fellow.

He was elected to the APIL executive committee in 2005, was APIL president from 2009 to 2010, then re-elected to the executive committee in 2012 before being elected as APIL secretary in 2016. He is also a member of the Forum of Complex Injury Solicitors, the Professional Negligence Lawyers Association, the Law Management Section of the Law Society, the South Yorkshire Medico-Legal Society and the Solicitors' Association of Higher Court Advocates.

He provides professional training on a range of subjects including procedure, practice management, occupiers' liability, contributory negligence, clinical negligence and evidence as well as regular updates on developments in the law. He has chaired sessions, and spoken, at many conferences including APIL annual conferences, APIL clinical negligence conferences, the APIL catastrophic injuries conference and APIL business conferences.
