

Clinical negligence update 2020

Leeds
Manchester
Bristol
London

17 September
12 October
21 October
30 October

This course will bring you fully up-to-date on all the important developments clinical practitioners need to know about in 2020.

Like APIL's hugely popular "PI update" series, but designed specifically for clinical negligence lawyers, this full one-day course will include:

Weather report: the latest on procedural, costs and other reforms along with tips and tactics

Breach of duty: issues and themes from recent judgments

Psychiatric injury: what constitutes a "shocking event" in a clinical negligence claim

Causation: the latest on the various ways in which causation can be established

Quantum: use of the Ogden Tables for future loss of earnings, accommodation claims and other issues from recent judgments

Procedure: service, case/costs management, expert evidence, sanctions and traps

Costs and funding: Part 36, indemnity costs, hourly rates and related topics

"Very enjoyable, engaging speakers, detailed materials and a lot of useful information"

Speakers

John McQuater is a partner and head of litigation at Atherton Godfrey LLP, Doncaster. He was president of APIL between 2009 and 2010, was re-elected to the EC in 2012 and is currently APIL secretary. John is a senior fellow of APIL, a member of the Law Society personal injury and clinical negligence accreditation schemes and an APIL accredited clinical negligence specialist. He is also an author in the APIL Guide series, published by Jordans, as well as a member of the editorial board of JPIL.

Natalie Cosgrove is an associate solicitor at Switalskis in Yorkshire. Natalie qualified as a barrister in 2008 and cross qualified as a solicitor in 2011. She has specialised in clinical negligence since qualification. She has been a member of APIL since qualification. Natalie specialises in birth injury cases and was involved in the landmark cases: Manna v Central Manchester University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust and JR v. Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust. She is also the vice president of the Yorkshire Union of Law Societies.
