

Fatal accidents:

Taking care of the client and taking care of yourselves

Wednesday, 4 November 2020

12:00 - 13:00

This webinar looks at practical ways in which practitioners can avoid, or mitigate trauma to themselves when dealing with bereaved clients.

It also looks at the practical steps that lawyers can take to understand the bereaved client and ensure that they are able to participate in the litigation process with the minimum amount of disruption.

Technical requirements

You will need access to the internet on your PC, plus audio speakers. If you do not have access to speakers you will be able to receive audio via a phone line. Further information on how to log on to the webinar will be sent via email a week before the event.

Hilary Wetherell, Partner, Irwin Mitchell LLP, Birmingham

Hilary Wetherell qualified in 1999 and is an Associate Solicitor in the Serious Injury and Neurotrauma team in the Birmingham office of Irwin Mitchell practising exclusively in the area of high value claimant personal injury cases.

Hilary has particular expertise in cases involving significant brain and head injury arising out of road traffic accidents and accidents at work.

Hilary has secured a number of settlements in excess of £1million and in 2009-10, recovered damages in excess of £5.8 million in total for seriously injured claimants.

She has a particular interest in rehabilitation following brain injury and regularly deliver training to brain injury case managers and specialist rehabilitation providers including the ever popular APIL "Fatal accidents" training courses which run annually.

Hilary is a brain injury, fatal accident and senior litigator accredited member of the Association of Personal Injury Lawyers (APIL). Her team devised and designed the APIL Fatal Accidents Accreditation.
