EXPERT WITNESS TRAINING

Legal training for expert witnesses: Court proceedings and trial Legal training for expert witnesses

The Association of Personal Injury Lawyers (APIL) is pleased to announce the development of two brand new training events for expert witnesses, geared towards both claimant and defendant experts.

These courses aim to deliver practical guidance to assist you in developing the skills and knowledge required to become a good expert. They can serve as an introduction but also as a refresher, to improve your current skill-set.

Legal training for expert witnesses will provide an overview of the expert witness up to conference and directions, including report-writing;

Legal training for expert witnesses: court proceedings and trial will concentrate mostly on post-issue stage of the case, joint expert meetings, preparing for and giving evidence at trial.

Who should attend?

Health professionals of all specialties who wish to become or who are already experts, reporting on issues of liability and condition and prognosis.

APIL database of experts

APIL provides an expert database for its membership. It has been designed to speed up the litigation process by providing APIL members with suitably qualified experts to assist with their cases.

APIL experts are categorised as follows:

About APIL

APIL has been fighting for the rights of injured people for almost 30 years. A not-for-profit campaign organisation, APIL's 3,300 member lawyers (mainly solicitors, barristers and legal executives) are dedicated to protecting and enhancing access to justice, changing the law where appropriate, and improving the services provided for victims of personal injury. Over the years APIL has grown to become the leading, most respected organisation in this field, constantly working to promote and develop expertise in the practise of personal injury law, for the benefit of injured people.
