

Claims by secondary victims (part one) (LIVE WEBINAR)

Friday, 15 October 2021
13:00 - 14:00

This webinar is part of a two webinar series which looks at the key issues surrounding secondary victims.

This webinar, presented by experienced and knowledgeable barrister Richard Baker will cover:

- Primary victims and secondary victims
- The control mechanisms
- Who can be a secondary victim?
- Establishing proximity
- What the claimant needs to witness
- Risk assessment and how to identify the claims that are likely to succeed
- How to evidence the claim

Richard Baker is a barrister at 7BR Chambers. He is described by Chambers and Partners and the Legal 500 as a leading junior specialising in personal injury and clinical negligence work and has been ranked in both areas for a number of years. He has built up a busy and successful practice and wins praise for his advocacy and problem solving skills but also his ability to relate to his clients, especially the bereaved. He has been an Assistant Coroner for South Yorkshire (East) since 2011 and has earned an excellent reputation for his ability to manage complicated and difficult inquests.

Richard is happy to accept work from Claimants or Defendant organisations.

Richard has specialised in complex clinical negligence work since he was called to the bar and has been described by Chambers and Partners as "building an impressive reputation, particularly for his work on high-value brain injury cases". He undertakes work covering all clinical and surgical specialties but takes a special interest in obstetric cases, having represented claimants in a large number of birth injury cases.

Richard also has particular experience of working with the bereaved having represented many families through complicated and traumatic inquests and subsequent claims pursuant to the Fatal Accidents Act 1976 and Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1934.

"Sharp mind, a great negotiator, a brilliant advocate who skillfully destroys the opposition"
