 - When negligence affects prognosis
 - Understanding of how to look at anatomy when faced with claim.

“A well structured and well presented course. It suited the novice as well as the experienced PI practitioner. A most worthwhile course.”

Colin Holburn was appointed as consultant in emergency medicine to Sandwell Health Authority in February 1992, in charge of the emergency department of Sandwell General Hospital. He continues to work in the same Trust across both emergency departments, although has recently moved to part time work. Colin is an examiner for the fellowship examination at the Royal College of Emergency Medicine. He is an advanced trauma life support instructor, and has been an advanced cardiac life support provider, instructor and course director, and an advanced paediatric life support provider and instructor.

Nigel Zoltie is a practising medicolegal expert, A&E consultant and trainer in a variety of medical related subjects. He qualified from Bristol University in 1977, underwent surgical training (including plastic surgery) and this was followed by accident & emergency training, with appointment to consultant in accident & emergency in 1993. His special interest areas are whiplash injuries, including low velocity impact, hand injuries, and clinical negligence.
