

Material contribution to injury - where are we in 2022?

WEBINAR - LIVE STREAMED OR ON DEMAND

Wednesday, 5 October 2022

12:00 - 13:00

“John is a consistently excellent presenter who entertains, enthuses and encourages in equal measure”

This webinar will highlight the emerging dangers associated with service by email to help you navigate the rules and avoid the pitfalls including:

- Factual causation: role and context in the tort of negligence
- Distinguishing legal causation and scope of duty from factual causation
- When does the test of material contribution apply?
- What makes a contribution to injury material?
- Divisible and indivisible injuries
- The origin of the law on establishing causation by material contribution
- The development of the law from industrial disease to clinical negligence (and other) claims
- The distinction between material contribution and material increase to risk
- Are there now different ways of establishing causation?
- Latest cases and developments in this area of the law

Speaker

John McQuater is a partner and head of litigation at Atherton Godfrey LLP, Doncaster. He was president of APIL between 2009 and 2010, was re-elected to the EC in 2012 and is the new APIL president after a stint as the company secretary.
