

Clinical negligence update 2022

VIRTUAL EVENT - LIVE STREAMED Tuesday, 28 June 2022

This one-day course, designed specifically for clinical negligence lawyers, will cover a range of topics, bringing you fully up to date on all developments, including:

- News: The latest on reforms to help you prepare and future-proof your practice
- Breach of duty: Topics and themes from recent judgments
- Psychiatric injury: Where are we now with secondary victim claims arising out of clinical negligence?
- Causation: But for/material contribution and indivisible/divisible injuries – is there a path through all the case law?
- Quantum: Current topics affecting clinical negligence claims
- Procedure: Issue/service, case/costs management, expert evidence, with tactics and pitfalls
- Costs and funding: Hourly rates, Part 36, solicitor and own client costs challenges as well as other current topics
- Future: What is on the horizon?

A recording of the course will be available after the event if you cannot make the live date!

“Thank you to both speakers, another really good, informative, APIL clin neg update”

“These courses are always relevant, informative and dare I say it, enjoyable!”

*Speakers and topics may be subject to changes

Natalie Cosgrove qualified as a barrister in 2008 and cross qualified as a solicitor in 2011. She has specialised in clinical negligence since qualification. She has been a member of APIL since qualification and is accredited as a senior litigator.

She is a solicitor advocate, with rights of audience in the Higher Courts for all civil and criminal proceedings. She is also a Director at Switalskis.

John McQuater is a partner and head of litigation at Atherton Godfrey LLP, Doncaster. He was president of APIL between 2009 and 2010, was re-elected to the EC in 2012 and is currently APIL secretary.

John is a senior fellow of APIL, a member of the Law Society personal injury and clinical negligence accreditation schemes and an APIL accredited clinical negligence specialist.
