Legal training for expert witnesses

Webinar training from APIL!

The Association of Personal Injury Lawyers (APIL) is delighted to be returning again this year with its annual training programme for expert witnesses.

These APIL courses aim to deliver practical guidance to enhance and develop the skills and knowledge required to become an excellent expert. They can serve as an introduction but also as an up-to-date refresher, to improve your current skill-set.

The five webinars series will be released in bulk on, 23 June and cover:

The independent expert: What does it really mean?

- The core duties
- Civil procedure rules
- Court directions
- Civil justice guidelines
- Rules of evidence
- Case law illustrations

Changing your opinion

- Reducing the need for changes from the outset
- The circumstances where changes may be needed
- When changes must not be made
- How to react if you feel compromised
- Professional obligations

Written questions

- The circumstances when written questions arise
- The rules around written questions
- Likely topics
- How to respond
- Resolving problem areas

Joint discussions between experts

- Applicable of civil procedure rules
- Practicalities
- Their purpose and what they are NOT for!
- Agenda or no agenda?
- Leading case summaries

Video surveillance and social media

- Why is it used?
- Issues of evidence
- How does it impact on the expert?
- (Un)conscious exaggeration/fraud
- How to respond
- Latest case: Recording of expert meetings
