

APIL international injuries conference 2024

HYBRID EVENT

Attend in person or virtually

Friday, 29 November
Marriott Regents Park Hotel, London

APIL is delighted to be heading to the Marriott Regents Park Hotel in London, this November, for its 9th annual international injuries conference. This will be a hybrid event and delegates are invited to either join us in-person or remotely.

APIL is also delighted to have negotiated special discounted accommodation rates at the Marriott Regents Park Hotel and guests can book directly with the hotel. Please contact the APIL office for further details of how to book.

Conference attendees are invited to join the speakers, sponsors, exhibitors and other delegates for an informal dinner on the night prior to the conference at the cost of £65 + VAT per person.

Topics include*:

- Co-counselling in overseas cases: Working collaboratively to get the best results
- Illness Abroad: Where are we now?
- Liability in aviation claims: Thinking outside the black-box
- Panel session: Assessing damages for loss of earnings
- PEOPIIL: The international focal point for personal injury lawyers
- Preparing your experts and their evidence in international injury claims
- Secondary victims and international traumatic incidents
- Trouble at sea - water sports claims
