Brexit: have we fallen off the cliff and what does it mean for personal injury claimants and practitioners?

NOTE: Due to the current uncertainty surrounding the Brexit process, the content of this session is likely to evolve as we approach the conference

- What impact has Brexit had so far on cross-border personal injury claims?
- How has it affected motor claims, including untraced and uninsured driver cases abroad?
- Update on efforts to replace the Recast Regulation rules on jurisdiction and enforcement
- Have the rules on applicable law started to diverge from the rest of Europe and what does the future hold for legal certainty in the law applicable to non-contractual obligations post-Brexit?
- Practical experience so far, including interactive input from delegates

Speaker: Ian Denham, Barrister, Outer Temple Chambers, London

Session to include Brexit Q&A interactive question time

Delegates are invited to provide questions / comments / "war stories" for discussion prior to the conference
