“One of the most interesting and useful courses I have been on in quite some time!”

“An excellent course and invaluable insight from the highly experienced lawyers!”

Katherine Allen heads the travel litigation team at Hugh James, and has vast experience of acting for tourists who have become ill or been injured on package holidays, in road accidents abroad, on cruise liners and on aeroplanes. She also has experience in dealing with claims arising from aviation disasters. She is an APIL senior litigator and is one of the first APIL accredited accidents and illnesses abroad specialists. She is a member of the Travel and Tourism Lawyers Association, the Pan-European Organisation of Personal Injury Lawyers (PEOPIL), and the American Association for Justice. She is also the Chair of the PEOPIL RTA European Exchange Group.

Daniel Clarke is also a barrister at Outer Temple Chambers and practises in personal injury. He has a particular specialism in cases with an international element. These include claims arising from accidents abroad involving conflicts of law and jurisdictional issues, package travel claims, claims under the Athens and Montreal Conventions. Dan specialises in cases cross-border claims (including claims raising conflicts of law and jurisdictional issues) and has experience of acting in claims in other jurisdictions including in the Privy Council and in Jersey. He is experienced in costs issues and is an accredited mediator.

Accredited by:

APIL - Litigator and senior litigator
