

Alleviating financial hardship after serious injury

Friday, 14 May 2021
15:00 - 16:00

This webinar, presented by APIL brain injury special interest group secretary David Withers and Victoria Gammon, both of Irwin Mitchell, will cover:

- Interim payment procedure and recent case law
- Other routes to alleviate financial hardship including:
 - Budgeting review
 - Debt management options
 - Existing protection policies
 - Accessing pension funds
 - State benefits and Personal Injury Trusts

Victoria Gammon has worked as a financial adviser for over 18 years and has a wealth of knowledge in a wide range of financial planning areas. She has considerable experience working alongside clients and professionals, providing the highest level of financial planning to ensure that clients can work towards their financial objectives.

Her qualifications include a diploma in financial planning and she is currently working towards Chartered status

David Withers is a Partner at Irwin Mitchell LLP.

He leads a team of serious injury specialists dealing predominantly with traumatic brain injury, spinal cord injury and significant polytrauma including amputations.

He is accredited as a Fellow with APIL. He is also the Secretary for the Brain Injury Special Interest Group.

He is included in the Legal 500 Directory.
