

AN INTRODUCTION TO PERSONAL INJURY PRACTICE AND PI LAW

Are you interested in pursuing a career in personal injury law?
Have you just started a new role in a personal injury department or firm?
Are you looking to refresh your knowledge and skills when running a personal injury claim?
If so, this course is for you.

The course is being delivered virtually and is split into four webinars, lasting 1.5 hours each. Each webinar can either be viewed on its own or can be purchased as a package and a recording will be sent to you for future reference. We will also hold a 30 minute Q&A session after Parts 2 and 4. Taking an accident at work/employer's liability case as the theme, the course will include example precedent documentation with each part covering the following:

AN INTRODUCTION TO PERSONAL INJURY PRACTICE AND PI LAW

Speakers:

STEPHANIE EDWARDS qualified as a solicitor in 2013 and joined Irwin Mitchell's serious injury team in London in 2017. She is accredited as both a senior litigator and brain injury specialist with APIL. Stephanie also sits on the committee for ABIL (Acquired Brain Injury Forum for London).

Stephanie specialises in those accidents resulting in life changing injuries, particularly those resulting in traumatic brain injury. She has experience in pursuing claims in respect of a wide variety of accidents, including road traffic accidents, employer's liability and accidents in a public place.

SAM ELSBY qualified as a solicitor in 1984. He has undertaken personal injury work only since 1990, when he also joined APIL. For over ten years, Sam was a partner at general practice high street firm in Easbourne, before leaving to set up his own practice in early 2003. In February 2018 his firm merged with Dean Wilson LLP in Brighton, where he joined their personal injury and clinical negligence team as a consultant. He takes on a wide range of cases, both by reference to value and cause of action. He has particular expertise in child/adolescent brain injury cases; fast-track trial advocacy and Inquests. He has over twenty years experience as a Court of Protection Deputy. Sam was the south east regional co-ordinator of APIL for nine years. He is a fellow of APIL and was elected as vice-president in May 2019 and was APIL president for the year 2020/2021.

NICOLA HEALES qualified as a solicitor in 1985 and is an experienced personal injury solicitor who has specialised in severe catastrophic injury claims acting for both children and adults for the last twenty-five years. She has a particular interest in acquired brain injury, rehabilitation and 'capacity' and is a firm believer that the early introduction of rehabilitation assists all parties to bring claims to a satisfactory resolution. Nicola adopts a multi-disciplinary approach liaising; with the medical teams, case managers and the Court of Protection where necessary.

Nicola is a fellow of the Royal Society of Medicine and a fellow of the Association of Personal Injury Lawyers. She is an APIL accredited brain injury specialist and an assessor for APIL for the Injury Specialist Panel. Nicola has an MSc in brain injury rehabilitation from the University of Wales, Swansea; the only lawyer to have been awarded this postgraduate degree.

IMOGEN LOWDEN qualified as a solicitor in 2019, having trained at Irwin Mitchell in Court of Protection, medical negligence and serious injury teams in both Irwin Mitchell's Bristol and London office. Imogen joined Irwin Mitchell's serious injury team in London in 2018. In April 2023, she joined Stewarts' Personal Injury team as an Associate. Imogen specialises in high value claims including road traffic accidents, employer's liability and occupier's liability claims. She has experience representing both adults and children who have sustained catastrophic injuries and has been involved in a number of multi-million pound settlements. Imogen is accredited as a litigator with APIL.
