

The annual APIL residential clinical negligence conference 2019

Thursday, 3 - Friday, 4 October

Hilton Brighton Metropole

Principal sponsor:

The digestive system

Eminent experts and practitioners will cover the many aspects surrounding the topics of the digestive system; and they will update you on the most recent developments in clinical negligence law.

Objectives:

- To provide an overview of key medical and legal issues in clinical negligence
- To provide an opportunity to listen to medical experts and learn more about the digestive system
- To give the chance to meet and network with relevant clinical negligence practitioners of varying experiences.

- The digestive tract - an overview
- General surgical standards - improving patient care, usurping democracy or arming lawyers
- Hot topical issues
- Liver and pancreatic disorders
- Bile duct injury - anatomy assumed, liability presumed!
- Diagnostic imaging - a dark art!

- Anastomoses, leakage and abdominal sepsis in gastrointestinal surgery
- Anorectal disorders
- The NHS Mediation Scheme: How to prepare, conduct and get the best out of mediation
- The acute abdomen
- Legal update
- Future potential developments in the pipeline

RESIDENTIAL PACKAGE STARTING FROM ONLY £645 + VAT***
