APIL international injuries conference 2023

HYBRID EVENT

Attend in person or virtually

Thursday, 30 November 2023
Marriott Regents Park Hotel, London

APIL is delighted to be heading to the Marriott Regents Park Hotel in London, this November, for its 8th annual international injuries conference. This will be a hybrid event and delegates are invited to either join us in-person or remotely.

New for 2023, delegates are invited to join the speakers, sponsors and exhibitors for the informal dinner on the night prior to the conference (Wednesday, 29 November) at the cost of £55 + VAT per person.

APIL is also delighted to have negotiated special discounted accommodation rates at the Marriott Regents Park Hotel and guests can book directly with the hotel. Please contact the APIL office for further details of how to book.

Topics include*:

- Acting for serving personnel and other claimants temporarily positioned abroad
- Direct actions and using Rome II
- Discount rates: An international perspective
- Claims against sporting bodies following international incidents
- Enforcement of UK judgments overseas
- Expert reports – practical tips
- Medical negligence abroad
- Panel session: Pre-action protocols and access to rehabilitation funding in cross-border claims
