This course will bring you fully up-to-date on all the important developments that clinical negligence practitioners need to know about for 2017.

Based on APIL's hugely popular 'PI update' series, but designed specifically for clinical negligence lawyers, this one-day course will cover:

- Weather report: all the latest you need to know about on reform
- Breach of duty: issues and themes from recent judgments
- Causation: the latest on this developing area of the law
- Quantum: loss of earnings, care, accommodation claims and other developments
- Procedure: issue, service, case/costs management and expert evidence
- Costs and funding: costs budgeting, Part 36, assessment and other current topics
- Managing clinical negligence litigation: the future landscape?

“Very enjoyable, engaging speakers, detailed materials and a lot of useful information”

Speakers

John McQuater is a partner and head of litigation at Atherton Godfrey, Doncaster. He was president of APIL between 2009 and 2010, was re-elected to the EC in 2012 and is currently APIL secretary. John is a senior fellow of APIL, a member of the Law Society personal injury and clinical negligence accreditation schemes and an APIL accredited clinical negligence specialist. He is also an author in the APIL Guide series, published by Jordans, as well as a member of the editorial board of JPIL.

Muiris Lyons is a partner and the head of the clinical negligence department at Stewarts Law LLP and an APIL fellow. He has practised in the field of catastrophic personal injury and clinical negligence for over 20 years and is recognised as a “clear leader in his field” (Legal 500). Muiris specialises in clinical negligence cases involving catastrophic injury including brain, spinal cord and birth injuries. Muiris joined Stewarts Law as a partner in 2008. Before then he had been a partner and the head of clinical negligence at number one ranked national firm Alexander Harris before their merger with Irwin Mitchell in 2006.
