

Clinical negligence update 2020

VIRTUAL EVENT

Watch from your own computer!

LAUNCHED ON 21 OCTOBER 2020

To tackle ongoing uncertainty, and with everyone's health and safety at heart, all APIL conferences, courses, and group meetings will be virtual to the end of 2020.

This course will bring you fully up-to-date on all the important developments clinical practitioners need to know about in 2020.

Like APIL's hugely popular "PI update" series, but designed specifically for clinical negligence lawyers, this full one-day course will include:

Weather report: the latest on procedural, costs and other reforms along with tips and tactics

Breach of duty: issues and themes from recent judgments

Psychiatric injury: what constitutes a "shocking event" in a clinical negligence claim

Causation: the latest on the various ways in which causation can be established

Quantum: use of the Ogden Tables for future loss of earnings, accommodation claims and other issues from recent judgments

Procedure: service, case/costs management, expert evidence, sanctions and traps

Costs and funding: Part 36, indemnity costs, hourly rates and related topics

"Very enjoyable, engaging speakers, detailed materials and a lot of useful information"
