

Damages in anticipation of death

(LIVE WEBINAR)

Monday, 8 June 2020

12:00 - 13:00

This webinar looks at the difficult, but important, issue of how the courts award damages when a claimant has reduced life expectancy as a result of their injuries.

- What is the effect of a judgment or settlement prior to death?
- How does reduced life expectancy affect the award for pain and suffering?
- What is the appropriate multiplier when there is reduced life expectancy?
- Are funeral expenses recoverable when a claimant has a reduced life expectancy?
- How do you calculate loss of income during the "lost years"?
- Can a child claimant claim for "lost years"?
- Can you claim for DIY and services during the lost years?
- Does the claimant have to prove a loss?
- Practical steps that the claimant's solicitor can take

In addition the webinar looks at the awards for pain and suffering made prior to death or when the claimant has a reduced life expectancy

Technical requirements

You will need access to the internet on your PC, plus audio speakers. If you do not have access to speakers you will be able to receive audio via a phone line. Further information on how to log on to the webinar will be sent via email a week before the event.

Gordon Exall was called to the Bar in 1991 having originally qualified and practised as a solicitor. He practices from Kings Chambers.

He works almost wholly in the area of personal injury litigation and in the law relating to civil procedure, limitation and costs. He has a particular interest in issues relating to damages, evidence and the drafting of special damages schedules.

Gordon is a former executive committee member of APIL and has lectured widely for APIL and CPIL on personal injury and procedure topics. Gordon is the author of written Personal Injury Practice Notes (Cavendish); The APIL Guide to Fatal Accidents (4th edition); the 14th edition of Munkman and Exall on Damages, and Periodical Payments the New Law. He also writes the section on limitation for the APIL loose-leaf.

Gordon has appeared in several of the leading cases relating to procedure, service of the claim form and the assessment of damages.

Gordon writes the "Civil Litigation Brief", one of the most widely read sites on litigation, evidence and procedure.

In his spare time Gordon plays guitar and mandolin in a rock band (which has performed at APIL conferences). He has four children and lives in York.
