

Essential occupiers' liability and public liability cases update - spring 2018

Monday, 30 April 2018
12:00 - 13:00

Join APIL preesident Brett Dixon to catch up with the latest cases on occupiers and public liability that a specialist practitioner needs to know about.

Topics covered include:

- Shops and the duty of care to visitors
- Child resistant packaging
- Poisonous goods
- How the courts treat residual risks
- Duty of care and its application to the police
- Res ipsa loquitur
- Icy conditions and gritting
- Local authority duties under the Occupiers Liability Act
- The application of risk assessment to play areas
- Compliance with a court order in respect of disclosure by a defendant

Brett Dixon is a Fellow of APIL. He works as a personal injury solicitor in Lancashire dealing primarily with employers' liability matters and catastrophic injuries.

Appointed in 2015 as a solicitor member of the Civil Procedure Rule Committee and a member of their sub-committee tasked with rewriting the disease and illness pre-action protocol.

Brett is an active member of the APIL Executive Committee and has been elected by the membership of APIL to be the President for 2017-2018.

He delivers training regularly on behalf of APIL via webinars and face to face courses including at the annual conference and national costs conferences. Brett also tours the UK annually providing the Accidents at Work update course.

He was previously the secretary of APIL's costs and funding Special Interest Group for three terms.

He has practised as a solicitor since 1999. He has a wealth of experience in representing both private and trade union clients. Brett has written many published articles including for the Gazette and JPIL.
