

Fundamental dishonesty - what you really need to know!

Thursday, 11 April 2018

11:00 - 12:00

The webinar will cover:

- The practical differences between CPR QOCS and s57 Criminal Justice and Courts Act 2015 based fundamental dishonesty
- A review of the latest cases and what they tell us from the Court of Appeal and High Court:
 - Howlett v Davies
 - London Organising Committee of the Olympic and Paralympic Games v Sinfield
- What the lower level decisions can tell us about how the courts will apply fundamental dishonesty
- When and how a defendant might raise the issue
- How the outcome for a client could differ pre and post s57
- The need to advise clients at the outset
- Can you ever establish substantial injustice?
- Practical steps when dealing with an allegation
- Where next for fundamental dishonesty?

Technical requirements

You will need access to the internet on your PC, plus audio speakers. If you do not have access to speakers you will be able to receive audio via a phone line. Further information on how to log on to the webinar will be sent via email a week before the event.

Brett Dixon is a Fellow of APIL. He works as a personal injury solicitor in Lancashire dealing primarily with employers' liability matters and catastrophic injuries.

Appointed in 2015 as a solicitor member of the Civil Procedure Rule Committee and a member of their sub-committee tasked with rewriting the disease and illness pre-action protocol.

Brett is an active member of the APIL Executive Committee and has been elected by the membership of APIL to be the President for 2017-2018.

He delivers training regularly on behalf of APIL via webinars and face to face courses including at the annual conference and national costs conferences. Brett also tours the UK annually providing the Accidents at Work update course.

He was previously the secretary of APIL's costs and funding Special Interest Group for three terms.

He has practised as a solicitor since 1999. He has a wealth of experience in representing both private and trade union clients. Brett has written many published articles including for the Gazette and JPIL.
