

Making serious injury litigation work for all stakeholders

Wednesday, 14 October 2020
13:00 - 14:00

This webinar, presented by APIL brain injury special interest group secretary David Withers of Irwin Mitchell, Sheffield, and Helen Kanczes, Senior Associate of Clyde and Co, Manchester will cover:

- The key points in the Serious Injury Guide
- How focussing on common ground can be beneficial to both parties
- Ensuring that the parties focus on the right issues at the right time in the right way
- A case study of how a serious injury claim can benefit both parties if done in a collaborative and sensible way

Helen Kanczes is a Senior Associate at Clyde & Co LLP.

She handles a wide range of high value and technically complex injury cases for household name insurance companies, including those involving traumatic and subtle brain injury, complex fractures, amputations and chronic pain, with values up to £8,000,000.

Helen has a special interest in the Serious Injury Guide and Rehabilitation Code and is known for her practical, thorough and forensic approach to cases.

David Withers is a Partner at Irwin Mitchell LLP.

He leads a team of serious injury specialists dealing predominantly with traumatic brain injury, spinal cord injury and significant polytrauma including amputations.

He is accredited as a Fellow with APIL. He is also the Secretary for the Brain Injury Special Interest Group.

He is included in the Legal 500 Directory.
