

Personal injury update - autumn 2021

16 September - The Nottingham Belfry, Nottingham
Attend in person

29 September - Worsley Park, Manchester and Live streamed
Hybrid event: Choose to attend in person or view virtually

APIL's PI updates bring you all the very latest on PI and caselaw.
There is so much content, they run twice a year – nothing is ever repeated.

Our six monthly update is back for the autumn! Written and presented by top expert practitioners, professional presenters and JPIL case digest editors, APIL vice president Brett Dixon and APIL secretary John McQuater will teach you everything you need to know in their usual lively and entertaining way.

We are all very excited to be back on the road again and we're also delighted to offer our Manchester date as a hybrid event, which means that delegates can either choose to attend in person or view the programme virtually, via APIL's dedicated training app. Places are very limited at the venues themselves, so please do book early if you would like to attend in person.

OUR SPEAKERS

BRETT DIXON

APIL Joint Vice President, Brett Dixon Training

Brett Dixon is a senior fellow of APIL. He is a consultant personal injury solicitor based in Lancashire with Smith Jones (Solicitors) Limited. He also runs Brett Dixon Training Limited delivering specialist legal training throughout the UK for APIL and in-house for firms.

He was appointed in 2015 as a solicitor member of the Civil Procedure Rule Committee and has recently been asked to serve a further term in that position. He is a member of their subcommittee dealing with reform of the court system and implementation of the pilot schemes for the online court system. Recently he has been a member of the sub-committees redrafting the Disease and Illness Pre-action protocol for resolution of package travel claims. He is also a member of the HMCTS professional engagement group.

Brett is also a member of the Ministry of Justice Steering Group and Legal Sub-Group for whiplash reform. He is the vice-chair of the Civil Justice Council Low Value Claims Working Group.

Brett is an active member of the APIL executive committee and was elected by the membership of APIL to be the vice president 2016-2017. Brett became president of APIL in May 2017, and agreed to serve a further term as President, being appointed for a second time at the annual conference in 2018. He was re-elected as joint vice president in May 2020. He was previously the secretary of APIL's costs and funding special interest group for three terms.

He delivers training regularly on behalf of APIL via webinars and face to face courses including at the annual conference and other conferences. Brett also tours the UK annually writing and delivering the 'PI update' and 'Accidents at work' update courses.
